

Oklahoma Inclusive Post-Secondary Education Options

For Students with Intellectual/Developmental Disability

Why consider IPSE programs after High School?

- Continue learning about your interests
- Do Life! – surrounded by your peers
- Learn to be more independent
- Try out different jobs
- Learn to speak up for yourself
- Develop a path to your goals
- Find out what you like
- Find out what you don't like

Generally: *Refer to specific program websites for detailed information.

2 – 4 year program length

Ages 18-26

Certificate rather than Degree

Audit Courses (See Note)

Alternate Admissions Process

On Campus Housing

Note: Neill-Wint Center at USAO is for students with autism taking courses for credit working towards a degree

Educate in areas of:

Independence

Social/Campus Community

Academic Enrichment

Employment

Supports:

Individualized

Peer/Community Mentors

Tutors/Student Assistants

Comprehensive Transition Program:

Programs for students with Intellectual Disability that have received a CTP designation allows students to apply for Federal Financial Aid.

Help with Financing College:

DRS/Vocational Rehabilitation

PELL Grants (if applicable)

Scholarships (Refer to OKIPSEAlliance.org for resources)

OK STABLE Saving Account

529 College Saving Account

Work Study

Loans

How Do I Get Started?

Attend Program Open Houses

Talk to students and families

Visit Program Websites and become familiar with application information

INCLUSIVE means INCLUDED in all aspects of campus life.
Students in IPSE Programs are STUDENTS like any other college student!

NORTHEASTERN STATE UNIVERSITY
RiverHawks Scholar Program

OPPORTUNITY
ORANGE SCHOLARS

NEILL-WINT
Center for Neurodiversity

SOONER WORKS
The UNIVERSITY of OKLAHOMA

Contact: Julie Lackey, Director
julie@okipsealliance.org